

NOW DRIVE OUT OFFICE HOLDERS, IS FUSION CRY

Army of Tammanyites in Small Jobs Menace to City,
Declares Saxe.

OWE PLACES TO "CHIEF."

Wager Will Cling to Berths
Unless Legislation Forces
Clean Government.

The first political question confronting leaders of the triumphant Fusion movement is how to complete the destruction of Tammany's power over the city, and shatter the organization. Martin Saxe, who represented the Republicans in the Fusion alliance, said today:

"Tammany has been defeated, but it has not been destroyed. The success of Mr. Mitchell and his associates on the ticket will not break the organization's grip on the city unless the election be followed by thorough uprooting of the whole nefarious system that permeates the entire structure of municipal government.

"There are about 30,000 officeholders in the city government. A very large majority of these are active, aggressive Tammany men. Their number has been estimated as high as 99 per cent. of the total. These men give their allegiance first to the Murphy organization. The city's interests come second.

"To destroy Tammany and to insure better government, it is necessary to strike hard at this army of employees. They must be made to change their allegiance to Tammany into allegiance to the City of New York.

"Tammany cares less for the few big offices than it does for the thousands of small places. Every district leader prefers to have a dozen small jobs parcelled out to him than one large salaried commission. Every department of the city is honeycombed with employees, of more or less efficiency, who form the foundations on which the organization stands and will continue to stand despite the men who are elected to the few higher offices.

"These minor officeholders are protected by civil service regulations. We do not say that civil service as a principle should be cast aside, but legislation must be enacted to change conditions and purify the government. The thousands of Tammany men now in office must be made to transfer their affiliation from the 'Chief of Tammany' to the interests of the city or they must be displaced by other men taken from civil service lists.

"No Mayor in the City Hall, no Commissioner in charge of a great department, no appointed head of a bureau can accomplish efficient service when many of his assistants and nearly all of his employees remain loyal to the political organization that this city has voted to overthrow and to destroy. Tammany always works from the bottom up. Its grip is strongest in the lowest strata. It is at the bottom that the uprooting of the system must be begun.

"Legislation is necessary to clean the city's house. It can be done by reorganizing great departments and remodeling operating bureaus. Civil service can be maintained but the Tammany army that now maintains itself upon the city's payroll and supports the power of the Wigwam can be whipped into a new allegiance or dismissed from office.

"The new Assembly will be Republican, but the Senate remains Democratic. I believe that sufficient up-State Democratic Senators will be glad to join with the Republicans to bring about the necessary legislation to thoroughly destroy the power of Tammany."

'SLANDERER,' SHOUTS MANN.

Lively Row in House Cut Short by Adjournment.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—During a wrangle in the House today over the absentee question, Representative Donovan, Democrat of Connecticut, declared Republican leader Mann had violated the law in not objecting to leaves of absence, and Mr. Mann retorted that Mr. Donovan was a slanderer of the House and ought to resign.

Representative Hull, acting Democratic leader, stopped the hostilities by adjourning the House.

declined to make statement about the election.

Forward Robert McCall, defeated Democratic candidate for Mayor, had no statement to make today regarding the result of his election. He kept the doors and sent word to friends who called that he was worn out by the campaign and had been advised that he needed a thorough rest.

He sent a telegram to John Purroy Mitchell—the one word "congratulations."

McCALL IS WORN OUT.

Declines to Make Statement About the Election.

Ordinary Personal Cleanliness

WELL groomed folks give the same thoughtful attention to the care of the breath and teeth as they do to the face and hands.

It is a social duty.

However, many cultured and highly sensitive persons are the victims of bad breath and neglected teeth.

This is a real misfortune and inexcusable. "ODOL" used regularly will prevent decay of the teeth and keep the breath sweet and clean.

You cannot afford to be without it.

Six to eight drops in warm water morning and night.

Pleasant to the taste and delightfully refreshing.
